Professional Legal German Language & Practical Skills Training

Language training with legal coaching and practice-oriented workshops

Legal German for your daily professional life! In Lawbility's Legal German Program you will practise your professional legal language and legal German terminology in business situations.

With guidance from German-speaking coaches you will engage in exercises geared towards handling situations that arise in your legal practice and learn how to competently and confidently use your legal skills in your professional life in Switzerland. These skills will boost your confidence in using legal German.

Courses in Zurich
and Geneva

The course is aimed at:

- Swiss and non-Swiss lawyers in a law firm, in-house legal professionals and lawyers in the public administration or working at the court
- who have a good command of general German (skill level at least B1) and
- with ideally first practical experiences in legal German.
